The pastor, Rev. E. C. Gannady extended a hearty welcome which made a very deep impression on those who heard it. Rev. L. H. Johnson in the response assured them that the representatives would not abuse the privilege that had been given them by the pastor. Instructive remarks were given by delegates from churches they represented, telling of the growth since the last Association.

Roll of churches, enrollment of Ministers and Messenger were called. (See list in this minutes)

TUESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 P. M. the Association reassembled, and Praise Service was conducted by Revs. P. Bell and D. Williams. Minutes of previous session was read and approved. Rev. J. H. A. Jenkins, the Vice-President, presented the Moderator, who came forward and delivered a most profound address. It was motioned and carried to place this address in the hands of the Committee on Resolutions. At this point the president asked Revs. J. H. A. Jenkins and H. R. Alston to ascend the pulpit for the introductory sermon. Rev. Alston led "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand," after which he read the 24th chapter of St. Luke. Prayer was offered by Rev. G. R. Yancey. "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," was then sung.

Rev. Cheek, the Moderator, presented the preacher who came forward and announced his text: Luke 24 chapter, 32 verse. His subject was "Emotion in Devotion." Rev. Jenkins preached a very powerful sermon, seasoned with the Holy Spirit and full of instruction. Bro. A. Arrington and Bro. J. B. Bing took up collection amounting to $10.00. Adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING SESSION--7:30 P. M.

Praise Service conducted by Revs. G. B. Fitts and T. S. Henderson. The service was full of the spirit of Christ. After the Praise Service, the moderator asked Rev. H. Y. Cheek to ascend the stand, assisted by the Secretary, Rev. T. M. Alston. A spiritual was sweetly sung: "Oh How Sweet it Will Be." Hymn No 378 was then lined and led by Rev. T. M. Alston. St. John 11th. Chapter was read. Rev. J. S. Thomas led in a fervent prayer, after which "Sweet Hour of Prayer"was sung.

Rev. H. Y. Cheek was then presented to preach the Missionary Sermon. He selected as his text: St. John 11:42. Subject "Our Duty to the Bystander." The sermon was helpful and inspiring. He used the following points:

1. Responsible to do things to help others
2. Bystander must be loved
3. Sympathetic attitude to bystander
4. Bystander will evaluate our Christian studying
5. Influence bystander to your service

"Oh, How I Love Jesus," was sung. After which, Dean J. H. Tilley of the Theological Department of Shaw University was presented and gave an interesting and enlightening talk on "Our Duty to Shaw University." He said in part that the work at Shaw had been reorganized.

2. School of Religion had grown and progressed with much rapidity. This department offers an A. B. and B. D. degree in six years. We are looking for 5 graduates in June 1935.
3. Campus had been improved
4. Shaw needs money for further advancement
5. The Alumni Association is aiding worthy students who may raise $20 for tuition from their home church. Mr. Tilley thanked the Association for the aid she had given in the past.

Collection was lifted by Rev. Burchette and Rev. J.H. Johnson amounting to $15.50. Benediction by Rev. E. L. Jones.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

House was called to order at 9:30 A. M., with Rev. J. S. Davis presiding on account of the absent of Revs. W. M. Coppedge and J. N. Young. Rev. Early Jones and Rev. S. P. Massengburg were then appointed to conduct the Praise Service, which was very soul-stirring. Rev. J. W. Burrell led in fervent prayer.

After the devotional service the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Introduction of visitors: Rev. Charles A. Mason and Rev. J. J. Jones. Report from Committee on Sunday School was read and adopted. The report from Committee on Obituary was read and an amendment was made by Bro. A. B. Johnson that 15 minutes be set aside for memorialize service. It became the concensus of opinion that the Moderator set the best time. In view of the fact we were keeping pace with our program so splendidly, Sister M. C. Ransom was at this point given a chance to express herself to the Association. Out of her rich experiences she stressed the importance of finding Christ early, and emphasized the necessity of the church's close over-sight and supervision of young people. She pointed out the danger of intemperance, dancing, card-playing and dissipating. She appealed to old and young to practice good habits and clean living through good work in all the auxiliaries of our churches, conventions and associations. An offering was lifted for Sister Ransom by the Moderator amounting to $6.05.

Committee on Officers was read and adopted with an amendment. A motion was passed that the matter pertaining to reports and bonding of treasurer be referred to a committee appointed by the Moderator. The names of the committee follows: Bro. A.B. Johnson, C.A. Adkins and Deacon P. F. Hayley.

Rev. Johnson was given an opportunity to speak of the Union Reformer. He urged the ministers to please pay for the paper after he sent it to them. Bro. Johnson also represented the State Baptist Emergency Fund. He left 50 copies of the Union Reformer on the table, and closed a strong talk with a thunderous appeal for support of all our State Work.

At this time Rev. G. W. Fife, a visiting A.M.E. Brother, was introduced. We enjoyed his words of inspiration and encouragement. "Rise and Shine and Give God the Glory," was then sung by the Orphanage choir. Rev. Jones, who was introduced, made an appeal for prayerful effort.

Treasurer's report was read and adopted with a balance on hand of $30.25. Auditor's report was adopted. In the absence of Miss Lucy I. Thorpe, who was scheduled to read a paper, Rev. Young and and Rev. G. E. Cheek, came forward and after apologizing for the absence of Miss Thorpe gave inspiring remarks.

As usual Dr. Cheatham inspired our Association with his powerful appeal for pride in, love for and cooperation in, and with all our great organizations. He pointed out the wisdom of keeping our children confined in a surrounding that has been carefully and wisely created for the best development of our youth--"training up a child in the way it should go." At the close of the discussion a collection was taken by Bros. Samuel Brooks and Alex Peace, amounting to $20.68. (See this minutes for ones who gave 25¢ and upward)

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

At this hour the Missionary sisters of Ilong and Hawkins conducted a very inspiring Praise Service. Reports on Obituary: Dr. M. C. Ransom and Dr. Wharton's life were briefly discussed at this point. "What Are They Doing in Heaven Today," was sung by Missionary sister. Bro Hayley pointed out fact that the late Dr. Ransom was truly a student, teacher, preacher and a child of God. Deacon Pettiford of the First Baptist Church, Oxford, spoke of the life od Dr. Wharton. The points stressed were: that Dr. Wharton was a clean man, who had a big heart and gave freely. He was a builder which is proved by the edifice which stands as a memorial to him. The memorial service of fifteen minutes closed by singing one stanza of "Servant of God well Done."

At 3:30 o'clock Rev. A. B. Johnson, accompanied by Rev. Cobb, was presented to preach the Doctorinal Sermon. He announced his text: St. John 10:28: "I Give Unto Thee Eternal Life, etc." Subject--"Eternal Salvation." The sermon was richly and spiritually preached, and full of the Holy Spirit.

Report of Committee on Finance was read and adopted. Report on Committee on Revision of Constitution and all other reports were adopted. (See reports in this minutes.)

The Original Shiloh Missionary Baptist Association adjourned to meet with the Olive Grove Baptist Church, Warren County, North Carolina, near Littleton, Tuesday, after the third Sunday in September 1934.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

To the Ministers, Messengers and Friends of the Original Shiloh Missionary Association--Greetings: My dear brother ministers, messengers and friends. It is through the mercy and goodness our kind Heavenly Father that we have come together again to review the past year's work of our churches, and to formulate plans for another year's work in futhering the cause of our Heavenly Father.

This is the sixty-third year of the working of this Association. There are many things accomplished by this association for which we should feel proud of. The number of well-prepared ministers gone out from this body who are doing splendid work in pastoring and evangelizing our people. Our contributions for the colored orphanage, for home and foreign missions, for ministerial education to assist our old superannuated ministers, and for Shaw University, have been for a number of years very steady, for which each of us should feel proud.

But let us not be contented for what we have done in the past. Let each minister and each messenger return home with renewed zeal to do more for each objective of our great Association. This makes the 17th year of my service with you and for you as president of this great and honorable body. For more than one-fourth of the whole life of this association you have called or selected me to stand at its head. I did not seek this position, neither was I expecting it at the time it was thrusted upon me. Since, in your judgment, you conferred this honorable task upon me, I have done my very best to carry out your plans and bidings. I could not have done what was done, however, through me, but for your loyal support. You have given me a fine board of members to work with. I am happy to say there has been no friction between us, all things have moved along very smoothly. For the past 17 years of our work, we have had altogether less cross debates, less "points of order," than most associations and conventions have in one day of their meetings.

I believe we have less unreliable and unworthy ministers than any association or convention that I know of. Let us continue this high standard of ministerial Christain living--First, by setting the high standard of Christain living ourselves. Let the ministers be truthful, reliable and sober. What looks any worse than a minister smoking cigars, cigarettes and pipes? What looks any worse than a minister standing at some store or crossroad gossiping a lot of foolishness? What looks any worse than ministers always restless until he can get in close company with some fair female? Brethren let us set the standard high.

Church Discipline

A strict corrective discipline is a splendid tonic for any Church. Let each pastor and messenger urge their churches to the necessity of a strict corrective church discipline. Whenever and wherever this is not done your church becomes afflicted with a serious malady.

Seeking Churches

To the young ministers, and a few of the old ministers, also, I do not think it wise for ministers to seek churches or appointments. Let the church seek you instead of you seeking the church. Also let the appointment seek you.

Financing Our Churches And Our Associations

I am afraid many of our churches are indulging themselves too much during these years of depression. Do you not know that the Lord is trying your faith? God sees us. He knows just how much we spend for luxuries--tobacco, soft drinks and smokes--and how little we spend for the upkeep of our churches and for missions. Will a man rob God? (Malchi 3) My dear brethren let us renew our loyalty on all phased of our association and put over a bigger program for the Lord.

Our Young People

Let us be mindful of our young people. Let us pray for and teach them more, and curse and abuse them less. I am of the opinion that as a whole, many of our young people are dl doing fine, especially where they receive the proper encouragement from their spiritual leaders and from their homes.

Auxiliary Work in the Church

I believe all auxiliary church work should be under the supervision of the church and should make annual reports to their churches of all moneys raised and disbursed by them. These reports together with all monies raised by the churches should be reported in the church letter to our Association. This being done we will have a better financial showing in our Association minutes.

Pastor's Election

May I call your attention to the proper method of calling pastors? In my judgment a splendid way to call a pastor is first pray that the Lord may guide you in the calling of a pastor. Should you find yourselves without a pastor you will do well to confer with some reliable experienced pastor and seek his advice in regards to the pastor's qualifications and fitness. Or you may ask some experienced, reliable pastor to recommend to you some worthy, qualified, minister for your church. When you call a pastor it is far better to elect them for an indefinite period than for a short time, with the understanding that either the pastor or church may make a change at any time by serving three months notice of such a change. Some think this means to elect a pastor for life. It does not mean that. It means that the church or pastor can serve their connection in three months time from the time he is called or at any other time either the church or pastor wishes to do so. The church that has "pastor's election" every year is certainly a long way back. Trusting you may fully understand and appreciate this advice, I remain

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We your Committee on Resolutions do offer for your consideration the following:

1. Be it resolved that we do most heartily endorse the resolutions as set forth in our sixty-second annual sitting.

2. Be it further resolved, that, since our National Government and all commercial activities seem to be bending every effort to relieve the depressed conditions of our country, therefore, be it resolved that we join most earnestly in doing our part as Christain workers.

3. That, whereas, all evidences point to the fact that we have largely strayed from the teachings as laid down in God's word that we re-affirm our faith in His work, and in His ability and willingness to preserve those who obey and trust Him; and that renewed emphasis be given to teaching fundamental Christain principles as laid down in the great Book of Books.

4. Be it further resolved, that, in as much as banks, trust companies and most of our financial institutions have been forced to close their doors, not so much on account of dishonesty as upon a lax method of business, that the treasurer of this Association be required to give bond or some security for all monies held by him for the Association.

5. And be it further resolved, that we extend to Hawkins Chapel--it's pastor, Rev. Cannady, and the good people of this community, a rising vote of thanks for the courtesy and hospitality shown us during our stay here.

6. And we finally recommend that the president's address be placed upon the face of

COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

We your Committee on Sunday Schools beg leave to submit the following report: Whereas, the Church is a divine institution implanted by God for the care and training of souls for usefulness in the Church on earth; and whereas, the Sunday School is the teaching part of the Church, therefore, be it resolved, that each deacon and preacher will take an active part in it.

2. We further recommend that each Sunday School will have it's Children's Day on the second Sunday in June, and if not Communion they will have it on their regular preaching day.

3. We further recommend that the pastor and deacons will see that each superintendent and teacher be qualified for the office.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

We your Committee on Education beg leave to make the following report: Realizing that ignorance enslaves, destroys and mars our vision of that higher and nobler life toward which we are striving; and, too, since, it doubles our sorrows and divides our happiness by adding to the discomforts of life; and since education is a preserver of civilization, an elevation to mankind, and a moulder of the destiny of nations; therefore, be it resolved:

1. That we continue our support of the cause of education in a larger way, by doing more for schools like Shaw University.

2. That we continue to advise our people to refrain from participation in and support to those things which do not make for their advancement.

3. That we strive to encourage Christain education among the youth of our day and the coming generations.
